CHAPTER 11:02

SUMMARY OFFENCES ACT

An Act relating to offences punishable on summary conviction.

1950 Ed.
Ch. 4, No. 17.
31 of 1921.

[19TH MAY 1921]

Commencement.

1. This Act may be cited as the Summary Offences Act.

Short title.

2. In this Act—

“convicted offender” means any person convicted of an arrestable offence;

Interpretation.
[45 of 1979
57 of 2000
85 of 2000].

“convicted person” means any person convicted, either summarily or on indictment, otherwise than for an arrestable offence;

“Court” or “Summary Court” shall have the meaning assigned to these terms by section 2 of the Summary Courts Act;

Ch. 4:20.

“farm animal” includes—

- (a) any bison, buffalo, horse, donkey, mule, ox, bull, cow, steer, heifer, calf, ram, ewe, sheep, lamb, goat, kid, hog, sow, pig or swine;
- (b) any tool, machinery, equipment or material used in the rearing of animals or in the production of animal products; and
- (c) any other animal, tool, machinery, equipment or material which the Ministry may, by Order, direct to be included within this definition;

“fireworks” include bombs, torpedoes, squibs, rockets and serpents;

“goods” means goods, wares or merchandise of any kind whatsoever;

“house” means any dwelling house, store, warehouse, counting house, manufactory, stable or shed; and also includes any building capable of containing goods, wares or merchandise;

“livestock” includes any farm animal or poultry or the carcass, head, skin or any other part or product thereof;

“occupier” means any person in actual occupation of the whole or any part of any house, building, yard or other place;

“owner” means the person for the time being receiving or entitled to receive the rents of any house, building, yard, or other place, or his agent, and includes joint tenants and tenants in common;

“poultry” includes any fowl, chicken, turkey, duck, goose or other bird and the eggs, feathers or product from any such bird;

“prison” includes any lock-up house, cell or other duly authorised place of detention;

“property” includes any description of real and personal property, money, debts and legacies, and all Deeds and instruments relating to or evidencing the title or right to any property or giving a right to recover or receive any money or goods; and includes not only such property as has been originally in the possession or under the control of any person, but also any property into or for which the same has been converted or exchanged, and anything acquired by such conversion or exchange, whether immediately or otherwise;

“shop” means any shop, store, house, room, shed or booth used, wholly or in part, temporarily or otherwise, for the purpose of selling therein any goods;

“street” includes any road, square, court, alley, lane, wharf, jetty, quay, bridge, footway, thoroughfare, public passage or highway, and any public place, and the waters of any harbour in Trinidad and Tobago;

“valuable security” includes any writing entitling or evidencing the title of any person to any share or interest in any public stock, annuity, fund, or debt of any Commonwealth country or of any foreign State, or in any stock, annuity, fund, or debt of any body corporate, company, or society, whether within or without any Commonwealth country, or to any deposit in any bank; and also includes any scrip, debenture, bill, note, warrant, order or other security for payment of money, or any accountable receipt, release, or discharge, or any receipt or other instrument evidencing the payment of money or the delivery of any chattel personal, and any document of title to lands or goods as defined above;

“vehicle” includes wagons, carts, and carriages of every description on wheels, sledges, trucks, barrows and all other machines for the portage of goods or persons.

JURISDICTION OF JUSTICES

3. Subject to section 6 of the Summary Courts Act, a Justice shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any offence under this Act where the penalty prescribed for such offence does not exceed a fine of two hundred dollars or imprisonment for one month, and also offences cognisable under the following sections, namely, 34, 35, 46, 51 to 56 inclusive, 62, 63, 64, 75, 78, 79, 80, 82, 89 and 91.

Jurisdiction of Justices. [45 of 1979]. Ch. 4:20.

PART I

GENERAL SUMMARY OFFENCES

ASSAULT AND BATTERY

4. Every person who unlawfully assaults or beats any other person, upon complaint by or on behalf of the party aggrieved, is liable to a fine of four hundred dollars or to imprisonment for three months.

Assault and battery.

5. (1) When any person is charged before a Magistrate with assault or battery upon any male child whose age does not, in the opinion of the Magistrate, exceed eighteen years, or upon any female, or upon any old, infirm or sickly person, the Magistrate, if the assault or battery is of such an aggravated nature that it cannot in his opinion be sufficiently punished under section 4 may proceed to hear and determine the same, and such person is liable to imprisonment for six months.

Assault upon children, women and old, infirm, and sickly persons. [66 of 2000].

(2) Any person who unlawfully assaults or beats any other person thereby occasioning any wound or actual bodily harm is liable to imprisonment for six months.

Aggravated assaults causing wound or harm.

Assaults by masked persons.

6. Any person who, being masked or otherwise disguised, unlawfully assaults or beats any other person is liable to imprisonment for twelve months.

Where assault unproved or trivial, certificate of dismissal to be bar to proceedings.

7. If the Magistrate, upon the hearing of any case of assault or battery upon the merits where the complaint was laid by or on behalf of the person aggrieved, considers the offence not to be proved, or finds the assault or battery to have been justified, or so trifling as not to merit punishment, and accordingly dismisses the complaint, he shall forthwith give to the defendant a certificate of the dismissal, and such certificate shall release the defendant from all other proceedings, civil or criminal, for the same cause.

Magistrate to abstain from adjudication in certain cases. [45 of 1979].

8. In case the Magistrate finds the assault or battery complained of to have been accompanied by any attempt to commit an arrestable offence or is of opinion that it is from any other circumstances a fit subject for prosecution by indictment, he shall abstain from any adjudication upon the case and shall deal with the case in all respects in the same manner as if he had no authority finally to hear and determine it. Nothing in this section, however, shall authorise any Magistrate to hear and determine a case in which any question shall bona fide arise as to the title to land or any interest in or accruing from land, or as to any bankruptcy, or any execution under the process of a Court of Justice.

Question of title, bankruptcy and execution.

LARCENY, EMBEZZLEMENT, FALSE PRETENCES, AND MALICIOUS INJURIES

Larceny, embezzlement, false pretences. [3 of 1980].

9. Any person who is guilty of the larceny or the attempt to commit the larceny of any chattel, money, or valuable security, such larceny not being accompanied by burglary or housebreaking, menace or threat, nor amounting to robbery with violence, or who embezzles, or by any false pretence obtains or attempts to obtain from any other person with intent to defraud, any chattel, money, or valuable security, where such chattel, money or valuable security does not in any case exceed the value of two thousand dollars, is liable to a fine of three thousand dollars or to imprisonment for six months.

10. Any person who, being a bailee of any chattel, money, or valuable security not exceeding in value two thousand dollars, fraudulently takes or converts the same to his own use or to the use of any person other than the owner thereof, although he does not break bulk, or otherwise determine the bailment, shall be deemed to have stolen the same and may be convicted and punished accordingly.

Larceny by a bailee.
[45 of 1979
3 of 1980].

11. Any person who steals or attempts to steal in any dwelling house any chattel, money, or valuable security not exceeding in value two thousand dollars, such stealing not being accompanied by burglary or housebreaking, menace or threat, nor amounting to robbery with violence, is liable to a fine of three thousand dollars or to imprisonment for six months.

Larceny in dwelling house.
[3 of 1980].

12. Any person who steals or attempts to steal any sugar, rum, sling, syrup or molasses, being in any boiling house or curing house or in any store or warehouse, or being in any cask or package in the neighbourhood of such boiling house, curing house, store or warehouse, or any cocoa or coffee or coffee berries from any cocoa house or coffee house or any other place on any plantation or estate where the same is placed for the purpose of being dried or cured, or in any store or warehouse or from any sack, bag, cask or package placed in the neighbourhood thereof, not exceeding in value two thousand dollars, is liable to a fine of three thousand dollars or to imprisonment for six months.

Stealing sugar,
rum, cocoa, etc.
[3 of 1980].

13. Any person who steals or attempts to steal any goods, not exceeding two thousand dollars in value, in any vessel, barge, flat or boat of any description whatsoever, being at anchor within the Gulf of Paria or in any of the waters surrounding Trinidad and Tobago, or bound to or from any part of the coast of Trinidad and Tobago, from or to any other part of the coast of Trinidad and Tobago, or being in any port or usual place of discharge, or upon any navigable river or canal, or in any creek belonging to or communicating with any such port, place of discharge, river or canal, or who steals or attempts to steal any goods from any dock, wharf, embarcadere or quay adjacent to any such port, place of discharge, river, canal or creek, is liable to a fine of three thousand dollars or to imprisonment for six months.

Stealing goods
from vessels.
[3 of 1980].

Stealing
animals.

14. Any person who steals any dog or who steals any bird, beast or other animal ordinarily kept in a state of confinement or for any domestic purpose, not being the subject of larceny at Common Law, is liable, on first conviction to a fine of two hundred dollars, in addition to the value of the stolen dog, bird, beast or other animal or to imprisonment for three months and on any subsequent conviction to imprisonment for six months.

Stealing
livestock.
[57 of 2000].

14A. Any person who steals any livestock is liable—

(a) on first conviction, to a fine of not less than two thousand dollars and not more than twenty-five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for a term of not less than one year and not more than five years; and

(b) on a subsequent conviction, to a fine of not less than five thousand dollars and not more than thirty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for a term of not less than two years and not more than seven years.

Unlawful possession of animals or parts thereof.

15. If any such bird or any of the plumage thereof, or any such dog or beast or the skin thereof, of any such animal or any part thereof is found in the possession or on the premises of any person, any Justice may restore the same respectively to the owner thereof; and any person in whose possession such bird or the plumage thereof, or such dog or beast or the skin thereof, or such animal or any part thereof is found, such person knowing that the bird, dog, beast, or animal has been stolen, or that the plumage is the plumage of a stolen bird, or that the skin is the skin of a stolen dog or beast, or that the part is a part of a stolen animal, is liable on first conviction to such fine, and on any subsequent conviction to such punishment, as any person convicted under section 14 is liable.

Killing and
animals.

16. Any person who unlawfully and maliciously kills, maims, or wounds any dog, bird, beast or other animal, not being cattle but being either the subject of larceny at Common Law or ordinarily kept in a state of confinement or for any domestic purpose, is liable on first conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars over and above the amount of the injury done or to imprisonment for three months and on any subsequent conviction to imprisonment for six months.

17. Any person who unlawfully and wilfully kills, wounds, or takes any house-dove or pigeon, under circumstances which do not constitute larceny at Common Law, is liable to a fine of one hundred dollars in addition to the value of the bird or to imprisonment for one month.

Killing and wounding pigeons.

18. Any person who unlawfully and wilfully takes and destroys any fish in any water which is private property is liable to a fine of one hundred dollars in addition to the value of the fish taken or destroyed.

Unlawfully taking fish.

19. Any person who steals, or unlawfully and maliciously roots up, destroys or damages the whole or part of any tree, sapling, shrub or underwood, wheresoever growing, the value thereof or the damage done being to the amount of one dollar at the least, is liable on first conviction to a fine of two hundred dollars in addition to the value of the property stolen or the amount of the injury done and on any subsequent conviction to imprisonment for four months.

Stealing and damaging trees. [45 of 1979 51/1980].

20. Any person who steals or unlawfully and maliciously destroys or damages any part of any live or dead fence whatsoever, or any iron or wooden post, pale, rail, or wire used as a fence, or any stile or gate, or any part thereof respectively, is liable on first conviction to a fine of two hundred dollars in addition to the value of the property stolen or the amount of the injury done and on any subsequent conviction to imprisonment for six months.

Stealing and destroying fences.

21. Any person who steals or unlawfully and maliciously roots up, destroys or damages any plant, root, fruit or vegetable production growing in any garden, orchard, nursery ground, greenhouse or conservatory, is, subject to section 127, liable on first conviction to a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and not more than two thousand dollars, in addition to the value of the property stolen or the amount of the injury done, or to imprisonment for not less than one month and not more than six months and on any subsequent conviction to imprisonment for not less than one month and not more than one year.

*See Note on page 18.

Stealing, etc.,
sugar cane,
cocoa, or other tree or vegetable productions, etc.
[24 of 1953
98/1981].

22. Any person who steals, or destroys or damages or cuts or plucks with intent to steal, any sugar cane, cocoa tree, coconut tree, lime tree, rubber tree, or coffee tree, or any fruit, vegetable, or other praedial production, or any cultivated root or plant used or capable of being used for the food of man or beast or for medicine, distilling, or dyeing, or in the course of any manufacture, whatever the value of the article stolen may be, and whether the land on which the same is at the time growing or in course of cultivation be opened or enclosed, is, subject to section 127, liable on first conviction to a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and not more than two thousand dollars or to imprisonment for not less than one month and not more than six months and on any subsequent conviction to imprisonment for not less than one month and not more than one year.

Stealing
produce.
[57 of 2000].

23. (1) Any person who—

- (a) steals;
- (b) destroys, damages, cuts or plucks; or
- (c) destroys, damages, cuts or plucks with intent to steal, any agricultural produce is liable—

- (i) on first conviction, to a fine of not less than two thousand dollars and not more than twenty-five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for a term of not less than one year and not more than five years; and
- (ii) on a subsequent conviction, to a fine of not less than five thousand dollars and not more than thirty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for a term of not less than two years and not more than seven years.

*Section 7 of Ordinance No. 24 of 1953 provided that the new penalties inserted in sections 21, 22, 23 and 41 applied only to offences committed after the commencement of that Ordinance (that is, 31st December 1953) and that the new penalties in respect of “subsequent convictions” applied only where both the subsequent offence and the previous offence were committed after the commencement of that Ordinance.

(2) Any person who attempts to commit any of the offences mentioned in subsection (1) is liable to the same punishment as if he had committed any such offence.

(3) In this section “agricultural produce” includes—

- (a) all root crops, plants, grasses, pulses, vegetables, cereals, fruit and fibres;
- (b) all planting material, seeds, herbicides, pesticides and fertilisers;
- (c) all fish and other aquatic life;
- (d) all agricultural, forest and aquatic products, tools, machinery, equipment and materials; and
- (e) any other crop, plant, grass, pulse, vegetable, cereal, fruit, fibre, material, seed, herbicide, pesticide, fertiliser, product, tool, machinery, equipment or material used in agricultural production, whatever the value of the produce stolen may be and whether the land on which the same is at the time growing, being cultivated or situated, is open or enclosed.

24. Any person who—

- (a) being entrusted either solely or jointly with any other person with any chattel, money or valuable security, in order that he may retain in safe custody or apply, pay or deliver, for any purpose or to any person, the chattel, money or valuable security or any part thereof or any proceeds thereof; or
- (b) having either solely or jointly with any other person received any chattel, money or valuable security for or on account of any other person; or
- (c) having contracted with any other person to make anything or execute any work, obtains from that other person any money to be laid out in providing materials, tools or other things necessary or suitable for the making of the thing or the execution of the work,

Fraudulent conversion.
[3 of 1980
51/1980].

fraudulently converts to his own use or benefit, or the use or benefit of any other person, such chattel, money or valuable security or any part thereof or any proceeds thereof, the chattel, money or valuable security or the part or proceeds so fraudulently converted being less than two thousand dollars in value, is liable to imprisonment for six months; and such person may also be ordered to pay to the party aggrieved a sum not exceeding two thousand dollars by way of compensation.

Damaging property not otherwise provided for. [45 of 1979].

25. (1) Any person who wilfully or maliciously commits any damage to any real or personal property whatsoever, either of a public or private nature, for which no punishment is otherwise provided, is liable—

- (a) if the amount of the damage is fifty dollars or less, to a fine of two hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for one month;
- (b) if the amount of the damage exceeds fifty dollars and does not exceed two hundred dollars to a fine of one thousand dollars, or to imprisonment for three months;
- (c) if the amount of the damage exceeds two hundred dollars and does not exceed one thousand dollars, to a fine of two thousand dollars or to imprisonment for four months, and in any such case to the payment of such further amount as appears to the Magistrate to be reasonable compensation for the damage so committed.

(2) This provision shall not apply where the alleged offender acted under a fair and reasonable supposition that he had a right to do the act complained of.

Injuring trees.

26. Section 25 extends to any person who wilfully or maliciously commits any injury to any tree, sapling, shrub, or underwood for which no punishment is provided above.

- 27. Where the whole or any part of any tree, sapling or shrub, or any underwood, or any part of any fence, or any post, pale, wire, rail, stile or gate, or any part thereof, being of the value of one dollar at the least, is found in the possession or on the premises of any person with his knowledge, and such person does not satisfy the Magistrate or Justice before whom he is brought that he came lawfully thereby, he is, in addition to the value of the article or articles so found, liable on first conviction to a fine of one hundred dollars, and on any subsequent conviction to imprisonment for four months.
- 28. Where any farm animal or the carcase, head, skin or any part thereof, is found in the possession or on the premises of any person, and such person does not satisfy the Magistrate or Justice before whom he is brought that he came lawfully by such animal, or the carcase, head, skin, or any part thereof, he is liable on first conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars and on any subsequent conviction to imprisonment for two years.
- 29. If any person is convicted under this Act of stealing or wilfully receiving, knowing the same to have been stolen, any farm animal or of stealing or wilfully receiving, knowing the same to have been stolen, any animal ordinarily kept in a state of confinement or for any domestic purpose, or any animal ordinarily used for human food, the convicting Magistrate or Justice may, in addition to any other punishment imposed by law for such offence and subject to the provisions of the Corporal Punishment (Offenders over Eighteen) Act, sentence the offender to undergo corporal punishment.
- 30. If any person, having been convicted before the High Court or any Magistrate of stealing or unlawfully and maliciously destroying or damaging any sugar cane, cocoa tree, or coffee tree, or any cultivated root or plant used for the food of man or beast, or for medicine, or for dyeing or distilling, or for or in the course of any manufacture, and growing in any land, whether open or enclosed, afterwards commits any of the said offences, and is convicted thereof before any Magistrate, Unlawful possession of trees or parts of fences. [45 of 1979].

Unlawful possession of farm animal or parts thereof. [18 of 1970 57 of 2000].

Corporal punishment may be awarded for stealing, etc., farm animal or domestic animals. [57 of 2000].

Ch. 13:04.

Second offence of stealing or damaging useful plants and domestic animals.

Ch. 13:04. such Magistrate may, in addition to any other punishment imposed by law for such offence, and subject to the provisions of the Corporal Punishment (Offenders over Eighteen) Act, sentence the offender to undergo corporal punishment.

Not necessary to prove malice.

31. In any prosecution for maliciously destroying or damaging any property, it shall not be necessary to prove malice against the owner.

Compensation to injured person.

32. Every sum of money adjudged to be paid as the value of any property stolen or taken, or the amount of the injury done, which is assessed by the convicting Magistrate or Justice, shall be paid to the party aggrieved, if known, but if unknown it shall be applied in the same manner as any penalty; but when several persons are convicted for the same offence, and each is adjudged to pay the value of the property stolen or taken or the amount of the injury done, the party aggrieved shall receive only one such sum, and the residue shall be applied in the same manner as any penalty.

RECEIVING, ETC.

Receiving, punishable as stealing.

33. (1) Any person who receives any property knowing the same to have been stolen or obtained in any way whatsoever under circumstances punishable under this Act, is liable to be punished in the same manner as a person guilty of such offence under this Act.

(2) Every such person may be charged whether the principal offender has or has not been previously convicted or is or is not amenable to justice.

(3) In any proceeding for receiving under this Act any number of persons who have at different times so received such property or any part thereof may be charged or tried together.

Unlawful possession of property pertaining to ships, etc. [3 of 1980].

34. If property of any kind belonging to or forming part of the cargo of a vessel in distress, or wrecked, stranded, or cast on shore, or belonging to any of the officers, crew, or passengers of such vessel, is found in the possession or on the premises of any person with his knowledge, and such person does not satisfy the Magistrate or Justice before whom he is brought that he came lawfully by the same, he is liable to a fine of ten thousand dollars.

35. If any person offers or exposes for sale property of any kind which has been unlawfully taken, or is reasonably suspected so to have been taken, from any vessel in distress, or wrecked, or stranded, or cast on shore, in every such case any person to whom such property is offered for sale, or any officer of Customs or constable, may lawfully seize the property, and shall, with all convenient speed, carry it or give notice of its seizure to a Magistrate or Justice. If the person who has offered or exposed the property for sale, being summoned by such Magistrate or Justice, does not appear and satisfy the Magistrate or Justice that he came by it lawfully, then the property shall, by order of the Magistrate or Justice, be forthwith delivered over to or for the use of the rightful owner, upon payment of a reasonable reward (to be ascertained by the Magistrate or Justice) to the person who seized it; and the offender is liable on first conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars, and on any subsequent conviction to imprisonment for two years.

Offering for sale property belonging to ships.
[3 of 1980].

STOLEN OR UNLAWFULLY OBTAINED GOODS

36. (1) A constable may arrest without warrant any person having in his possession or under his control in any manner or in any place anything which the constable has reasonable cause to suspect has been stolen or unlawfully obtained.

Arrest of person conveying goods.
[3 of 1980].

(2) The constable shall bring such person and thing before a Magistrate as soon as possible, and if such person does not, within a reasonable time to be assigned by the Magistrate, give an account to the satisfaction of the Magistrate by what lawful means he came by the same, he is liable to a fine of ten thousand dollars or to imprisonment for two years.

Liability to account for possession.

(3) Where a person liable to arrest under subsection (1) escapes from any constable attempting to arrest him, or lets fall or throws away any such thing as is mentioned in that subsection, a Magistrate or Justice may, upon application, issue his warrant for the arrest of such person, and upon his arrest such person shall be deemed to have been arrested within the meaning of the said subsection, and may be dealt with in the manner laid down in subsection (2).

Escape.

Search warrant.
[3 of 1980].

37. (1) If information is given on oath to a Magistrate or Justice that there is reasonable cause for suspecting that anything stolen or unlawfully obtained is concealed or lodged in any house, store, yard, or other place, or on any land whether enclosed or not, or in any vessel, such Magistrate or Justice may, by warrant under his hand directed to any constable, cause any such house, store, yard or other place, or any such land, or any such vessel, to be entered and searched at any time of the day, or by night, if power for that purpose be given by such warrant.

Authority for forcible entry.

(2) The Magistrate or Justice may, by such warrant, if it appears necessary to him, give authority to the constable, with such assistance as may be found necessary, to use force for the effecting of such entry, whether by breaking open doors or otherwise. However, before using force for these purposes, the constable shall make known his authority as mentioned above.

Securing property found.

(3) If upon search made as provided above, anything so stolen or unlawfully obtained, or any other thing which there is reasonable cause to suspect to have been stolen, or unlawfully obtained, is found, the constable shall take such thing before a Magistrate, or guard it on the spot or in some place of security subject to the orders of a Magistrate.

Arrest of persons found in possession.

(4) (a) The constable shall apprehend and bring before a Magistrate the person or persons in whose house, store, yard, place, or vessel anything as mentioned above is found, and also any other person found in the house, store, yard, place or vessel, if the constable has reasonable cause to suspect such person to have been privy to the concealment or lodging.

Issue of warrant or summons.

(b) Where the constable fails or is, for any reason whatsoever, unable to arrest any such person as is mentioned above, a Magistrate or Justice may issue his warrant for the arrest of that person, or a summons requiring him to appear before a Magistrate at a time and place to be mentioned in the summons.

Liability to account for possession.

(5) A Magistrate may call upon any such person as is mentioned in subsection (4) to give an account, to the satisfaction of the Magistrate, by what lawful means any such thing as mentioned above came to be in such place, or that he was not privy to such concealment or lodging, and any person who fails to so satisfy the Magistrate is liable to a fine of ten thousand dollars or to imprisonment for two years.

38. (1) Any constable may enter on board any vessel in any harbour, bay, roadstead or river, and remain on board such vessel for such reasonable time as he thinks expedient, and if he has reasonable ground to suspect that there is on board the vessel anything stolen or unlawfully obtained, he may search, with any assistants, any part of the vessel, and, after demand and refusal of the keys, break open any receptacle, and, upon discovery of anything which he may reasonably suspect to have been stolen or unlawfully obtained, take such thing and the person in whose possession it is found before a Magistrate to be dealt with as provided above.

Constable
may board
vessel.

(2) Any such constable may pursue and detain any person in the act of conveying any such thing away from any such vessel, whether he has landed or not, together with anything so conveyed away or found in his possession.

39. (1) Where a person brought or appearing before a Magistrate under sections 36, 37 and 38 declares that he received any such thing as mentioned therein from some other person, or that he was employed as a carrier, agent or servant to convey such thing for some other person, the Magistrate may cause every such other person, and also any other person through whose possession any such thing has previously passed, to be brought before him.

Tracing possession.
[3 of 1980].

(2) Where any such person as is mentioned in subsection (1) is brought before him, the Magistrate may examine him as to whether he has been in possession of any such thing, and upon his admitting such possession, or upon its being proved to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that such person has been in possession of such thing, the Magistrate may call upon the person to give an account to the satisfaction of the Magistrate by what lawful means such person came by such thing, and if such person fails, within a reasonable time to be assigned by such Magistrate, to give such account, he shall be liable to a fine of ten thousand dollars, or to imprisonment for two years.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the possession of a carrier, agent, or servant is deemed to be the possession of the person who has employed the carrier, agent, or servant to convey the thing.

Disposal of unclaimed stolen goods.

40. Where any person is convicted under this Act of having received any goods knowing the same to have been stolen, the Magistrate or Justice before whom the conviction has taken place may, if no person proves his right to the goods, cause the goods to be publicly advertised for sale, and the goods shall be sold to the highest bidder at public auction within thirty days from the date of the advertisement or forthwith if the goods are of a perishable nature and the proceeds of the sale shall be paid to the Comptroller of Accounts for the use of the State.

ENTERING OR LEAVING CULTIVATED LANDS

Being found on, entering or leaving cultivated lands without lawful cause or excuse. [24 of 1953 57 of 2000].

41. (1) Any person found on cultivated lands, or on any lands on which livestock or farm animal are reared or kept, or entering or leaving such lands, unless he proves that he has some lawful cause or excuse or the permission of the occupier of the lands for being where he was found, is, subject to section 127, liable to a fine of not less than two thousand dollars and not more than ten thousand dollars and to imprisonment for not less than one year and not more than five years.

(2) Any constable, or the occupier of any cultivated lands or of any lands on which livestock or farm animal are reared or kept or his servants may, without warrant, arrest any person found on, or entering or leaving such lands if there is reasonable cause for such constable or occupier or servant to suspect that such person is where he is found without any lawful cause or excuse or the permission of the occupier of such lands. Any person arrested otherwise than by a constable shall be handed over to a constable as soon as possible and shall thereafter be dealt with as if he had been arrested by a constable.

(3) In this section “cultivated lands” means lands on which any article of agricultural produce is cultivated, grown or stored and “article of agricultural produce” means any crop, plant, grass, pulse, vegetable, cereal, fruit, fibre, material, seed, herbicide, pesticide, fertiliser, fish or other aquatic life, tool, machinery, equipment, material or product falling within the definition of

73. (1) Any person who washes any clothes, or throws or discharges any water which may have been used in the washing of clothes or holding soap in solution, or any dirt or filth, or any noxious or fetid matter of any description whatever, into any stream or pond or water, whether running or not, without the permission of the owner of the stream, pond or water, is liable to a fine of two hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for one month; and any person found committing any such offence may be immediately apprehended by any constable, or by the owner of the property on which the offence is committed, or by his servant, or by any person authorised by him, and forthwith taken before a Magistrate, to be dealt with according to law.

Washing clothes in or discharge of noxious matter into stream or pond. Ch. 4, No. 17-1940, ss. 78 and 79.

(2) Any owner of land who washes, or causes or permits any person to wash, any clothes, or throws or discharges, or causes or permits any person to throw or discharge, any dirt, filth or other noxious or fetid matter into, or in, any water running through such land, whereby such water coming or flowing into any other land may be polluted and rendered unfit for use, is liable to a fine of one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for three months.

Owner of land not to pollute water flowing into any other land.

Recovery and appropriation of penalties.

74. Any penalty under section 73 may be recovered on the information of any Forest Ranger, or constable, or of the owner of the property upon, or in respect of which, such offence has been committed, and every such penalty, if recovered on the information of the owner, shall be paid to such owner, which term shall in the said section 73 and in this section, extend to and include any person having the immediate possession or the management or charge of the land.

INCITING DOGS OR OTHER ANIMALS TO ATTACK

Inciting animals to attack.

75. Any person who incites a dog or other animal to attack, worry, or put in bodily fear any other person or any animal is liable to a fine of four hundred dollars or to imprisonment for two months.

KEEPING SWINE

Keeping swine.

76. Any person who keeps any swine in a town is liable to a fine of two hundred dollars or to imprisonment for one month; and any constable may enter in the daytime any place in any town in which he may have reasonable cause to suspect that any swine are kept, and to seize all swine which may be found there, and such swine shall be forfeited to the State.

CONFINEMENT OF ANIMALS

Owners to confine animals.

77. (1) In this section—
“animal” includes swine, goats, and such other animals as the Minister may from time to time, by order, direct to be included in such term;
“owner” includes the head of a family occupying any premises in which an animal is kept or permitted to remain;
“confined” means confined in a pen or fenced place or securely tethered so as to prevent the animal from wandering.

(2) Every animal shall, except when it is in transit and in charge of the owner or some person acting on his behalf, be confined by its owner.

(3) Any owner who refuses, fails, or neglects to act in conformity with this section is liable on first conviction to a fine of one hundred dollars, on second conviction to a fine of two hundred dollars, and on any subsequent conviction to a fine of four hundred dollars or to imprisonment for two months.

(4) The fact that an animal is found off the premises of its owner shall be prima facie evidence that an offence under this section has been committed by the owner of such animal.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS

78. In sections 79 to 90 (inclusive) “animal” means any horse, mare, gelding, colt, filly, bull, cow, ox, steer, heifer, calf, mule, ass, ram, ewe, sheep, lamb, boar, sow, barrow, hog, pig, goat, kid, dog, cat, or any other domestic animal, whether of the kind or species particularly mentioned or of any other kind or species whatsoever, and whether a quadruped or not. Interpretation.

79. (1) Any person who cruelly beats, ill-treats, starves, overdrives, overrides, overloads, abuses, tortures, or otherwise maltreats any animal is liable to a fine of four hundred dollars or to imprisonment for two months. Cruelty to animals. [2 of 1953].

(2) An animal shall be deemed to be overloaded if it is made to carry a burden or draw a load which is beyond its strength, or after it is exhausted, or if by reason of the size, strength, or condition of the animal or of any other circumstances the Magistrate is of opinion that the burden or load is unduly heavy.

(3) An animal used in drawing a vehicle shall be deemed to be ill-treated if, by reason of the condition of the vehicle or harness used, or of the nature and condition of the road travelled over, or other cause, the animal, in the opinion of the Magistrate, has been made to suffer unnecessary strain or pain or has been overworked.

80. Any person who works any animal in such a condition as to be unfit for work, whether from lameness or from emaciation or from any gall or sore or otherwise, and whether that condition is caused by disease or deficient feeding or otherwise, in any cart, plough, or carriage, or other vehicle of pleasure or burden, is liable to a fine of four hundred dollars or to imprisonment for two months. Working animal unfit for work.

Power to arrest.

81. (1) A constable or the owner of any animal in whose view an offence under either section 79 or 80 is committed may apprehend the offender and take him before a Magistrate or Justice to be dealt with according to law.

(2) Such constable or owner may similarly apprehend the offender if information of the offence is given by any other person declaring his name and place of abode.

Compensation for damage done by cruelty to animals. [45 of 1979].

82. (1) If any person shall, by committing any offence under section 79 or 80, cause any injury or damage to be done to any animal or to any person or property, he shall, on conviction for such offence, pay to the owner of the animal (if the offender is not the owner) or to the person who has sustained the injury or damage, such sum of money by way of compensation, not exceeding five hundred dollars, as the Court shall adjudge.

(2) The payment of such compensation or imprisonment for the non-payment thereof shall not prevent or in any manner affect the punishment to which the offender may be liable for or in respect of the offence.

(3) Nothing herein contained shall prevent any proceeding by action against the offender or his employer where the amount of the damage or injury is not sought to be recovered under this Act.

Bull-baiting, cock-fighting and similar offences.

83. (1) Any person who—

- (a) in any manner encourages, aids, or assists at the fighting or baiting of any animal, whether domestic or wild; or
- (b) keeps or uses or acts in the management of any place to be used for the purpose of fighting or baiting any such animal; or
- (c) being the owner or occupier of any place, permits or suffers it to be so used, is liable to a fine of four hundred dollars or to imprisonment for two months.

(2) Any person who receives money for the admission of any other person to any place kept or used for any of the purposes mentioned above shall, unless the contrary is proved be deemed to be the keeper of such place.

84. A Magistrate or Justice may, by warrant under his hand, authorise any constable to enter any place used for the purpose of fighting or baiting any animal and to apprehend all persons who, and to seize all animals which, may be found there, and to take them before a Magistrate or Justice to be dealt with according to law.

Power of entry, arrest, and seizure.

DETENTION OF ANIMALS FOR TREATMENT

85. On any conviction for any offence under section 79 or 80, the Magistrate may, if he thinks that such animal is unfit to work, direct that it be detained in any place which has been notified in the Gazette as set apart by the Trinidad and Tobago Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals for that purpose, for any period not exceeding thirty days, during which the maintenance of such animal shall be provided free of cost to the Government. Pending the hearing of a complaint for any such offence the Magistrate may, on the application of the complainant, direct the animal to be detained in the same manner.

Animals may be detained for treatment.

86. Any place so set apart as mentioned above shall be deemed to be a pound for the purposes of section 13 of the Pounds Act.

Such place deemed a pound.
Ch. 67:03.

87. Except for gross negligence, no officer or servant of the Trinidad and Tobago Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals or person having charge of any place set apart as provided above shall be liable in respect of the death or sickness or deterioration of, or any accident or casualty to, any animal detained in such place under this Act.

Liability for animals detained.

88. If any animal detained under section 85, for any period shall, on the expiration of that period or within forty-eight hours thereof, not be claimed by its owner, or if its owner does not pay to the said Society the cost of the keep and treatment of the animal

Unclaimed animals may be sold or destroyed.

during the period it is detained, the person having charge of it may, after seven days' notice published in the Gazette, sell it by auction and apply the proceeds towards the expenses to be incurred under this Act, or may destroy it.

Scale of charges.

89. (1) The Minister may make Regulations prescribing the scale of charges for the treatment and keep of animals detained under section 85.

(2) All such Regulations shall be published in the Gazette.

DESTRUCTION OF ANIMALS

Power to order destruction of animal.

90. (1) In the case of any offence under section 79 or 80, the Court may, if it thinks fit, order as part of its sentence that the animal shall be destroyed and its body disposed of at the expense of the offender.

(2) The Commissioner of Police shall give such orders as may be necessary for the destruction of the animal and the disposal of its body.

SLAUGHTERING OF CATTLE

Heifers under three years of age not to be slaughtered.

91. (1) Any person who slaughters or causes to be slaughtered any heifer under the age of three years is liable to a fine of one thousand dollars.

(2) This section shall not apply to any animal slaughtered in obedience to lawful authority, or from a humanitarian motive such as the prevention of suffering, or because of disease, or for any other sufficient cause.

LICENSING OF CERTAIN TRADES

Certain trades to be licensed.

92. (1) Any person who, within the limits of any town, commences or carries on the trade or business of a blacksmith, tinman, founder, farrier, or cooper without having first obtained a licence under the hand of the Magistrate of the district, authorising him to carry on such trade or business in some particular house, workshop, or premises specified in the licence or who, having such licence, carries on such trade or business in any place except the house, workshop, or premises specified, is liable to a fine of one thousand dollars.

(2) Every person carrying on the trade or business of a blacksmith, tinman, founder, farrier, or cooper, who, on being required by any constable on the premises where such trade or business is carried on to produce his licence, refuses to do so, is liable to a fine of one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for fourteen days.

Refusing to produce licence.

(3) One month's notice by public advertisement shall be given by the Magistrate of any application made to him for a licence to carry on any trade or business mentioned in this section, in which notice shall be inserted the name of the applicant and the place where such trade or business is intended to be carried on.

Notice of application for licence.

93. (1) Any person who for reward offers his services to any other person for the purpose of directing and accompanying such other person to any place of local interest or for the purpose of giving information to such other person in respect of any such place shall first obtain a licence as a guide from the Magistrate of the district in which he resides. Such guide shall wear a numbered armband which shall be supplied to him by the Minister. Such guide shall charge for his services a sum not exceeding the fee which shall be prescribed for the purpose by the Minister by Notification. Any person who contravenes this subsection is liable to a fine of two hundred dollars.

Guide's licence. [51 of 1980 3 of 1994].

(2) The Magistrate may for cause shown refuse to grant a licence to the applicant. Every licence granted shall remain in force up to 30th September next following the date of the issue of the licence unless previously cancelled by the Magistrate for cause shown on the application of the Commissioner. The applicant shall pay a fee of twenty dollars for each such licence.

94. (1) A copy of every application for a licence under section 92 or section 93 shall be served on the Commissioner of Police at least fourteen days before the application is heard by the Magistrate.

Police may oppose application for licences.

(2) A police officer of or above the rank of corporal may appear on behalf of the Commissioner at the hearing of the application and may object to the granting of any licence under section 92 or section 93.

[85 of 2000].

96. Any person who is guilty of any riotous, violent, indecent, or disorderly behaviour in any place of divine worship, or in any ground or land contiguous to the place of divine worship and used in connection therewith, whether during divine service or at any other time, or who disturbs or molests any person therein, whether during service or at any other time, and any person who disturbs or molests any religious head or official celebrating any religious rite or office in any street or other public place, or any other person aiding, assisting, or attending at the celebration of such rite or office, is liable to a fine of two hundred dollars.

Bringing into contempt, etc., another person's religion.
[85 of 2000].

96A. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, any person who brings into contempt or disbelief or who attacks, ridicules or vilifies another person's religion in a manner that is likely to provoke a breach of the peace commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars.

NAVY DISCIPLINE

Bringing intoxicating liquor to Defence Force ships.
[45 of 1979].

97. (1) Any person who brings any intoxicating liquor on board any ship of the Trinidad and Tobago Defence Force without the previous consent of the officer commanding the ship, or approaches or hovers about any such ship for the purpose of bringing any intoxicating liquor on board the same without such previous consent or for the purpose of giving or selling intoxicating liquor without such previous consent to other ranks of the Trinidad and Tobago Defence Force, is liable to a fine of four hundred dollars for every such act or offence.

(2) Any officer, warrant officer or non-commissioned officer of the Trinidad and Tobago Defence Force, with or without any men under his command, may search any vessel hovering about or approaching, or which may have hovered about or approached, any ship of the Trinidad and Tobago Defence Force, and any such officer, warrant officer or non-commissioned officer, with or without men under his command, or any constable or peace officer, with or without any warrant or other process, may apprehend or cause to be apprehended any person contravening any of the provisions of this section and bring him or cause him to be brought before a Magistrate.

(3) Any intoxicating liquor found on board such vessel shall be seized and forfeited to the State.

TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO DEFENCE FORCE UNIFORMS

98. (1) A person not serving in the Trinidad and Tobago Defence Force shall not wear, without the Minister's permission, the uniform of any member of that Force, or any dress having the appearance or bearing any of the regimental or other distinctive marks of any such uniform: This enactment shall not prevent any person from wearing any uniform or dress in the course of a stage play performed in a place duly licensed or authorised for the public performance of stage plays, or in the course of any bona fide military representation.

Uniforms not to be worn without authority. [45 of 1979].

(2) Any person who contravenes this section is liable to a fine of two hundred dollars.

(3) Any person not serving in the Trinidad and Tobago Defence Force who wears, without the Minister's permission, the uniform of any member of those Forces, or any dress having the appearance or bearing any of the regimental or other distinctive marks of any such uniform, in such a manner or under such circumstances as to be likely to bring contempt upon that uniform, or employs any other person so to wear that uniform or dress, he shall be liable to a fine of four hundred dollars.

Bringing contempt on uniform.

FIREWORKS AND FIREARMS

Fireworks in towns.

99. (1) Except as prescribed by Regulations under this Act, any person who throws, casts, sets fire to, or lets off any fireworks within any town is liable to a fine of one thousand dollars.

(2) In this section and in sections 100 and 101, “town” includes the City of Port-of-Spain, the City of San Fernando, and the Borough of Arima, and every part of the area within two miles of the boundaries of such City or of either of such Boroughs, and also any place or area declared by the Minister, by Order, to be a town or to be deemed to be included within a town for the purposes of the said sections.

Fireworks outside towns.

100. Any person who throws, casts, sets fire to, or lets off any fireworks into, in, or upon any street not being in any town, or into, in, or upon any place being within sixty feet of the centre of any such street, is liable to a fine of four hundred dollars.

Regulations.

101. The Minister may make Regulations prescribing the times, places, and conditions on and at which fireworks may be let off or set fire to in towns.

Discharging firearms in street.

102. Any person who discharges any gun, pistol, or other firearm in any street or within sixty feet of the centre of such street, except on some lawful and necessary occasion or when acting under a power conferred by any Act, is liable to a fine of four hundred dollars.

PUBLICATIONS

Warrant to search for obscene publication.

103. (1) Where a complaint is made upon oath before a Magistrate that—

- (a) the complainant has reason to believe and does believe that any obscene books, papers, writings, prints, pictures, drawings, or other representations are kept in any house, shop, room, or other place within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Magistrate for the purpose of sale or distribution, exhibition for purposes of gain, lending upon hire, or being otherwise published for purposes of gain; and

(b) that one or more articles of the like character have been sold, distributed, exhibited, lent, or otherwise published as mentioned above, at or in connection with such place, so as to satisfy such Magistrate that the belief of the complainant is well founded, and where such Magistrate is also satisfied that any of such articles so kept for any of the purposes mentioned above are of such a character and description that the publication of them would be an offence punishable under section 5 of the Criminal Offences Act or paragraph (g) of section 46 of this Act, the Magistrate may give authority by special warrant to any constable to enter into such house, shop, room, or other place, with such assistance as may be necessary, in the daytime, and if necessary to use force by breaking open doors or otherwise, and to search for and seize all such books, papers, writings, prints, pictures, drawings, or other representations found in such house, shop, room, or other place, and to carry all the articles so seized before the Magistrate issuing the warrant, or some other Magistrate exercising the same jurisdiction. Ch. 11:01.

(2) Such Magistrate shall thereupon issue a summons calling upon the occupier of the house or other place which may have been so entered by virtue of the warrant, to appear within seven days before such Magistrate to show cause why the articles so seized should not be destroyed.

(3) If the occupier or some other person claiming to be the owner of the articles does not appear within the time mentioned above, or if he appears and the Magistrate is satisfied that the articles or any of them are of the character stated in the warrant, and that the articles or any of them have been kept for any of the purposes mentioned above, the Magistrate shall order the articles so seized, except such of them as he may consider necessary to be preserved as evidence in some further proceeding, to be destroyed at the expiration of the time allowed for lodging an appeal unless notice of appeal is given, and such articles shall be in the meantime impounded.

(4) If the Magistrate is satisfied that the articles seized are not of the character stated in the warrant, or have not been kept for any of the purposes mentioned above, he shall forthwith direct them to be restored to the occupier of the house or other place in which they were seized.

Indecent pictures, writings, etc.

104. Any person who—

- (a) affixes to or inscribes on any land, building, wall, hoarding, gate, fence, pillar, post, board, tree, or any other thing whatsoever, so as to be visible to any person being in or passing along any street or being in any house; or
- (b) delivers, sends, or exhibits to any person being in or passing along any street; or
- (c) throws into any house, yard, or premises; or
- (d) exhibits to public view in the window of any house or shop, any picture or printed or written matter which is of an indecent or obscene nature, is liable to a fine of four hundred dollars.

Penalty provided in respect of publications which do not contain names of printer and publisher thereof.

105. Every person who prints or publishes any publication (which term includes any book, circular, pamphlet, handbill, poster or any other publication whether printed, typewritten, or written) shall cause to be printed, type-written or written thereon (as the case may be), in some conspicuous place and in legible characters the names and addresses of the printer and publisher thereof. Any person who fails to comply with this section and any person who circulates or causes to be circulated any publication which contravenes this section is liable to a fine of one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for six months.

PART II

PUBLIC MEETINGS AND PUBLIC MARCHES

PRELIMINARY

107. (1) In this Part—

“meeting” means any assembly or gathering of persons called together or held for the purpose of the transaction of matters of public interest or for the discussion of such matters or for the purpose of the expression of views on such matters;

Interpretation
of Part II.
[1 of 1972].

“police officer” has the same meaning as in the Police Service Act, and includes a member of the Special Reserve Police established under the Special Reserve Police Act and a member of the police service of any Municipality or borough;

Ch. 15:01.

Ch. 15:03.

“public march” means any march or procession in a public place comprising (whether wholly or partly) pedestrians, vehicles (however propelled or drawn), or bicycles (however propelled) except a march or procession—

- (a) by police officers or members of the Fire Service established by the Fire Service Act;
- (b) by members of the Defence Force established by the Defence Act;
- (c) which takes place as a component part of any religious ceremony, including a wedding or funeral, not being in any way connected with any political demonstration or celebration; or
- (d) which takes place at any time during the public festival of Carnival;

Ch. 35:50.

Ch 14:01.

Schedule. (e) in connection with any public meeting referred to in the Schedule;

Schedule. “public meeting” means any meeting held in any public place except meetings referred to in the Schedule;

“public place” means any highway, street, public park or garden, any beach and any public bridge, road, lane, footway, square, court, alley or passage, whether a thoroughfare or not; and includes any open or enclosed space to which, for the time being, the public have or are permitted to have access whether on payment or otherwise.

(2) For the purposes of this Part a person shall, subject to subsection (3), be regarded as the holder of a public meeting or the organiser or leader of a public march, respectively, if in any way—

(a) he holds or calls together or assists in the holding of or calling together a public meeting or signs the notification for such a meeting in accordance with section 109(2);

(b) he organises, leads or conducts or assists in the organisation, leading or conduct of a public march or signs the application for a permit for such march in accordance with section 113(2).

(3) In any proceedings under this Part for the contravention of any provisions relating to the holding, conduct or calling together of a public meeting or the organisation or leading of any public march, a person shall not be held to be guilty of any offence, if he proves that the contravention was committed without his consent or his connivance and that he exercised all such precautions as he could reasonably be expected to have exercised to prevent the commission of the offence having regard to the nature of his functions in relation to the meeting or march.

Exercise of functions of Commissioner. [1 of 1972].

108. The functions, powers and duties of the Commissioner of Police under this Act may be exercised by any police officer, not below the rank of Sergeant, authorised by the Commissioner in that behalf.

PUBLIC MEETINGS

109. (1) A person who desires to hold or call together any public meeting shall, at least forty-eight hours but no more than fourteen days before the day on which it is proposed to hold such meeting, notify the Commissioner of Police.

Holding of public meetings.
[1 of 1972
45 of 1979
17 of 1998].

(2) Every notification under subsection (1) shall be in writing signed by the person or persons desiring to hold or call together the meeting and shall state—

- (a) the address of each of the persons desiring to hold or call together such meeting;
- (b) the purpose or purposes of the meeting;
- (c) the place at which the meeting is to be held and the approximate time at which it is to begin; and
- (d) the name of every speaker other than a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago or a resident who intends to address the meeting.

(3) If the Commissioner of Police, having regard to the time at which, the circumstances in which or the purpose for which any public meeting is to be held has reasonable ground for apprehending that the holding of such meeting may occasion a breach of the peace or public disorder, he may—

- (a) subject to subsection (4), in writing, prohibit such meeting; or
- (b) give directions imposing upon the persons holding or calling together such meeting such conditions as appear to him necessary for the preservation of the peace and of public order, and where the notification is incomplete or the Commissioner has reason to believe that any information supplied in pursuance of the requirements of this Part is false, the Commissioner may prohibit such meeting.

(4) The Commissioner of Police shall, where the meeting is prohibited, state in writing the reasons for such prohibition, and notice of such prohibition shall be served either personally on any of the persons who signed the notification or by leaving it at the address of any of the persons stated thereon in accordance with subsection (2)(a).

(5) A person (other than a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago or a resident) who desires to address a public meeting or a political meeting shall no more than fourteen days before the date on which such meeting is to be held apply to the Minister for a permit to do so; and the Minister may, in any case, grant or refuse the application.

(6) Any person who, not being a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago or a resident, addresses a public meeting or a political meeting without first obtaining a permit in accordance with subsection (5) is liable to a fine of five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for two years.

(7) Any person who—

- (a) holds any public meeting without notifying the Commissioner of Police;
- (b) calls together or holds a public meeting that has been prohibited under subsection (3);
- (c) in furnishing the information for any of the purposes of subsection (2) makes any statement which he knows to be misleading, false, or deceptive, or by any dishonest concealment of material facts, or by reckless making of any statement (dishonestly or otherwise) misleads or attempts to mislead any other person;
- (d) fails, neglects or refuses to comply with any condition imposed by the Commissioner under subsection (3)(b), is liable to a fine of ten thousand dollars or to imprisonment for two years.

(8) In this section—

“resident” means a person who, not being a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago, is a resident of Trinidad and Tobago for the purposes of the Immigration Act;

“political meeting” has the same meaning as in section 117.

110. (1) No public meeting may be conducted in such a manner so as to result in a public march that is not permitted by the Commissioner of Police under section 114 and if a public meeting is conducted in such a manner that such a public march takes place at such a public meeting, the holder of such public meeting is guilty of an offence.

Prohibition on public marches and demonstrations at public meetings. [1 of 1972].

(2) Any person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) is liable to a fine of four thousand dollars and to imprisonment for eighteen months.

111. (1) Where—

- (a) a public meeting is held without notification being given in accordance with this Part;
- (b) a public meeting that has been prohibited under section 109(3) is called together or held; or
- (c) any condition imposed by the Commissioner in accordance with this Part is not observed by the holder of a public meeting; or
- (d) a public meeting is held in conformity with this Part, but in any such circumstances as to cause a police officer not below the rank of Sergeant reasonably to apprehend that any person or persons have acted or are acting or are about to act in a manner prejudicial to public safety or to public order,

Holders of public meetings may be required to call upon meeting to disperse, etc. [1 of 1972].

any police officer in uniform not below the rank of Sergeant may require any person addressing or present and known to him to have addressed or otherwise to be the holder or one of the holders of the public meeting to call upon such meeting to disperse.

(2) Any person required under subsection (1) to call upon any meeting to disperse who refuses, fails or neglects forthwith to call upon such meeting to disperse, is, in addition to any other offence, guilty of an offence under this subsection and liable to a fine of one thousand dollars and to imprisonment for six months.

(3) Where any person who is required under subsection (1) to call upon any meeting to disperse, refuses, fails or neglects to do so, any police officer in uniform may call upon such meeting to disperse.

(4) A person present at any meeting that is called upon to disperse under subsection (1) or subsection (3) who fails to comply with such requirement is liable to a fine of five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for three months.

PUBLIC MARCHES AND PROCESSIONS

Permit required for public marches.
[1 of 1972].

112. Notwithstanding any rule of law to the contrary no person may organise, lead or take part in any public march unless a permit has been issued in respect thereof by the Commissioner of Police.

Applications for permits for marches.
[1 of 1972
17 of 1998].

113. (1) A person who desires to organise any public march shall at least forty-eight hours before, but no more than fourteen days, before the day on which such public march is to take place, apply to the Commissioner of Police for a permit.

(2) Every application under subsection (1) shall be in writing signed by the person or persons desiring to organise the public march to which the application relates and shall state—

- (a) the address of each of the persons desiring to organise such march;
- (b) the purpose or purposes of the march;
- (c) the point of departure, route and point of termination of the march;
- (d) the hours between which the march is expected to take place.

Grant of permits for marches.
[1 of 1972].

114. (1) The Commissioner of Police on an application made to him under section 113, may, in any case, grant or, if he considers it in the interest of public safety and public order to do so, refuse the application; but the Commissioner shall, where there are reasonable grounds for apprehending that the public march in respect of which the application is made may occasion a breach of the peace or serious public disorder, refuse the application.

(2) The Commissioner of Police shall as soon as practicable after receipt of the application notify the applicant of his decision; and where the application is refused he shall state in writing the reasons for such refusal and notice of such refusal may be served either on the applicant personally or by leaving it at any of the addresses stated in the application in accordance with subsection (2)(a) of section 113.

(3) Where an application is granted, the Commissioner of Police shall issue to the applicant a permit for the desired march specifying therein the route to be followed and the times between which it may take place and such other terms as the Commissioner of Police may consider necessary for the preservation of public safety or public order.

(4) Notwithstanding—

- (a) the exception of marches and processions provided for in paragraphs (c) and (d) of the definition of “public march” in section 107(1);
- (b) the provisions of section 117,

the Commissioner of Police may prohibit any such march or procession in a public place if, having regard to the time at which and the circumstances in which the march or procession is held or is to be held, he has reasonable ground for apprehending that the holding of such march or procession may occasion a breach of the peace or public disorder provided that where the march is prohibited the Commissioner of Police shall state in writing the reasons for such prohibition.

115. Except with the prior permission in writing of the Commissioner of Police, and then only to the extent so permitted, no person shall address persons taking part in a public march in such manner as to make such public march a public meeting and if persons taking part in any public march are addressed in contravention of this subsection, the person so contravening this subsection and, subject to section 107(3), the organiser and leader of such march are liable to a fine of four thousand dollars and to imprisonment for eighteen months.

Prohibition on holding of public meetings during public marches. [1 of 1972].

116. (1) A police officer in uniform not below the rank of Sergeant may require any person—

- (a) who is the organiser or who is the leader of any public march—
 - (i) that is in contravention of the provisions of this Part;

Leader of march may be required to call on march to disperse. [1 of 1972].

- (ii) that is otherwise than in accordance with the terms of a permit issued thereunder; or
- (iii) that takes place in such circumstances as have caused such police officer reasonably to apprehend that any person or persons have acted or are acting or are about to act in a manner prejudicial to public safety or to public order; or

(b) reasonably appearing to him to be the organiser or the leader or one of the leaders of any such public march, to call on such public march to disperse.

(2) Any person required under subsection (1) to call on any public march to disperse, who refuses, fails or neglects immediately to call on such public march to disperse, is liable to a fine of four thousand dollars and to imprisonment for eighteen months.

(3) Where any person who is required under subsection (1) to call upon any public march to disperse, refuses, fails or neglects to do so, any police officer in uniform may call upon such march to disperse.

(4) Any person present at a public march that is called upon to disperse under subsection (1) or subsection (3) who fails to comply with such requirement is liable to a fine of five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for three months.

Saving for political meetings and certain public marches. [1 of 1972]. Schedule.

117. (1) Subject to section 114(4), sections 109(1) and (2), 120 and 121 shall not apply in the case of the holding, calling together or addressing of a political meeting in any public place in any electoral district or in the case of the organising, leading or taking part in any public march in connection therewith in any electoral district on any day during the period commencing on the day of publication of the notice of election relating to that electoral district and ending on the day preceding polling day.

(2) Subject to section 114(4), sections 112, 113, 114(1) to (3), 120 and 121 shall not apply in the case of the organising, leading or taking part in any public march at any time during which there is in force a relevant Order.

(3) The Minister may, either generally or with reference to some particular occasion, from time to time by Order (in this section called a “relevant Order”) declare, subject to such conditions as he may by such Order impose, any period to be a period during which the organising, leading or taking part in any public march may take place for the purpose of holding celebrations, community, social or cultural activities and other observances, (whether connected with labour or of a type similar to those that take place during the public festival of Carnival or otherwise); and such Order may relate to the whole or any part of Trinidad and Tobago.

(4) In this section, “political meeting” means a meeting held in an electoral district on any day during the period commencing on the day of publication of the notice of election relating to an electoral district and ending on the day preceding polling day in that electoral district for the purpose of discussing or criticising the performance of the Government or furthering or criticising the aims, objects, action or programme of any political party or for the purpose of supporting or opposing the candidature of any individual as against any other or others at such election.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed so as to make lawful any act or statement which contravenes the provisions of any other law.

118. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Part or in any other written law, if at any time the Minister is satisfied that, by reason of particular circumstances existing in Trinidad and Tobago or in any area thereof, serious public disorder would be occasioned by the holding of public meetings or public marches in Trinidad and Tobago or any area thereof and that it would be in the interest of public safety or public order to do so, he may make an Order, subject to negative resolution of the Prohibition of public meetings and marches in certain circumstances. [1 of 1972].

House of Representatives, prohibiting for such period not exceeding one month as may be specified in the Order the holding of all public meetings or public marches or of any class of public meeting or public march throughout Trinidad and Tobago or in any part thereof; but—

Schedule.

- (a) any such Order shall not apply to the classes of meetings set out in the Schedule;
- (b) where any such Order is negated by resolution of the House of Representatives, another such Order may not be made until the expiration of twenty-eight days next after the passing of such resolution.

(2) An Order made under subsection (1) shall, unless it is sooner revoked by the Minister, cease to be in force at the expiration of a period of twenty-eight days beginning on the day on which it was made or such longer period as may be provided under subsection (3), but, subject to subsection (1)(b), without prejudice to the making of another such Order at or before the end of that period.

(3) Where at any time while an Order made under subsection (1) is in force (including any time while it is in force by virtue of the provisions of this subsection) a resolution is passed by the House of Representatives approving its continuance in force for a further period, not exceeding three months, beginning on the date on which it would otherwise expire, the Order shall, if not sooner revoked, continue in force for that further period.

(4) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with the provisions of an Order made under this section is liable to a fine of four thousand dollars or to imprisonment for eighteen months.

Meetings held for other purposes. [17 of 1998].

118A. A person who purports to hold a meeting for any of the purposes listed in the Schedule and who in fact holds such a meeting for purposes other than those listed in the Schedule commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

119. The Minister may prescribe such forms as he considers are required for the proper administration of the foregoing provisions of this Part.

Forms.

MISCELLANEOUS

120. (1) Except in connection with any of the purposes for the time being set out in the Schedule or in the case of a public meeting or public march to which section 117 applies, no person may, for the purpose of advertising or giving notice of any intended meeting or march operate or cause to be operated any loudspeaker in any public place unless a permit to do so has been issued by the Commissioner of Police.

Restriction on use of loudspeakers.
Schedule.
[1 of 1972].

(2) For the purposes of this Part the expression “loudspeaker” means any apparatus which is designed, adapted or intended for the purpose of reproducing sounds over a wide area, and includes an amplifier, microphone or other similar instrument, apparatus or device.

121. (1) Except in connection with any of the purposes for the time being set out in the Schedule or in the case of a public meeting or public march to which section 117 applies, or in any other case, with the permission in writing of the Commissioner of Police, no person may operate or cause to be operated any loudspeaker at any public meeting or public march or in any public place after eleven o’clock in the evening.

Offence to use loudspeaker contrary to section 120(1)
or after 11.00 p.m., except during election campaign.
[1 of 1972].

(2) A person who operates or causes to be operated any loudspeaker at a public meeting or public march or in a public place in contravention of subsection (1) or of subsection (1) of section 120(1), is liable to a fine of two thousand dollars or to imprisonment for six months.

122. (1) A person who at a public meeting acts or incites any other person to act in a disorderly manner, likely to prevent or obstruct, or for the purpose of preventing or obstructing, the transaction of the business of the meeting is guilty of an offence under this section.

Offence to
up public meeting.
[1 of 1972].

(2) Where a police officer has reasonable cause to believe any person of committing an offence under subsection (1), he may require that person to leave the meeting immediately.

(3) A person who, having been required to leave any meeting by a police officer pursuant to subsection (2), refuses or fails immediately to leave such meeting is guilty of an offence under this section and liable to a fine of one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for three months.

Prohibition of offensive weapons at public meetings and marches. [1 of 1972].

123. (1) A person who without lawful authority and reasonable cause, the proof whereof shall lie on him, has with him any offensive weapon at a public meeting or in any public place during the course of a public march is liable to a fine of four thousand dollars and to imprisonment for eighteen months.

(2) Where a person is convicted of an offence under this section the Court—

(a) may make an order as to the forfeiture or disposal of any offensive weapon in respect of which the offence was committed; and

(b) where the offence was committed in respect of a firearm, may also make an order as to the forfeiture of any ammunition found in possession of such person and revoke any licence held by him under the Firearms Act.

Ch. 16:01.

(3) In this section—

“firearm” has the same meaning as in the Firearms Act;

“offensive weapon” means any article made or adapted for use for causing injury to the person, or intended by the person having it with him for such use by him.

Offence to take part in unauthorised meeting or march. [1 of 1972].

124. A person who takes part in any public march—

(a) in respect of which a permit under this Part has not been obtained; or

(b) otherwise than in accordance with the terms of a permit under this Part, is liable to a fine of two thousand dollars or to imprisonment for twelve months.

125. A person who—

- (a) leads;
- (b) organises or attempts to organise; or
- (c) incites any person to organise or take part in,

Offence to lead or organise marches. [1 of 1972].

any public march in contravention of any of the provisions of this Part is liable to a fine of four thousand dollars and to imprisonment for eighteen months.

PART III

PROSECUTION OF OFFENCES

126. All offences under this Act may be prosecuted, and all penalties, fines, awards of compensation, and costs incurred may be imposed or recovered, in the manner provided by the Summary Courts Act.

Prosecution and recovery of penalties. [1 of 1972]. Ch. 4:20.

127. Sections 21, 22, 23 and 41 shall have effect notwithstanding section 68(2) of the Interpretation Act. However, a Magistrate shall not be bound to award any minimum penalty provided for in any of the said sections in any case in which, for special reasons which shall be recorded by him on the face of the proceedings, he considers some lesser penalty appropriate, or in which the person convicted is a child or a young person, as defined in the Children Act; but in any such case he may deal with the offence in any manner in which he might have dealt with the same if the section had not provided for a minimum penalty.

Special powers of Magistrates in relation to minimum penalties provided by sections 21, 22, 23 and 41. [24 of 1953]. Ch. 3:01. Ch. 46:01.

128. Every person convicted summarily who pays the fine and costs or is discharged therefrom by the President, or undergoes imprisonment for non-payment thereof, or imprisonment adjudged in the first instance, or is discharged from his conviction in manner above mentioned shall be released from all other proceedings for the same cause.

Defendant to be liable only once. [1 of 1972].

129. Nothing herein contained shall in any manner affect the jurisdiction or the power or authority of the High Court and the Court of Appeal to adjudicate upon any of the offences made punishable under this Act or to limit the power of the said Courts to award any punishment which may be awarded by the said Courts for any of the said offences.
